

International Society Of Limb Salvage

Call for bids for the 22nd ISOLS Meeting 2023 which will take place in the Asian-Pacific/Oceania region

The International Society of Limb Salvage (ISOLS) would like to invite interested parties to submit their bids to host the association's 22nd General Meeting in 2023, which will take place in the Asian-Pacific/Oceania region.

As per the ISOLS rules and regulations, application to host the congress may only be submitted by an ISOLS member.

A written proposal for the purpose will be required and must include the following elements:

1.) To submit a bid for hosting ISOLS 2023 following information has to be provided (eligible criteria's)

- Proposed dates for the conference (September 2023)
- Proposed timetable of the meeting
- Proposed conference venue and its facilities/surroundings/hotels
- Financial feasibility: preliminary budget, potential institutional, government funding and/or sponsorships, agencies, organizations or institutions (chamber of commerce, universities convention/tourist bureaus etc.)
- Presentation of the professional congress organizer
- Information on plans for social programs

2.) Procedure for you

- An e-mail with the written proposal must be sent to the ISOLS Management, Ms. Dagmar Serfezi, c/o Vienna Medical Academy, Alserstrasse 4, 1090 Vienna, Austria or to office@isols.info by February 1, 2019, 17.00hrs CET, at the latest
- Mark for the attention of Ms. Dagmar Serfezi
- Please note, proposal arriving later than this deadline will be not considered

3.) What happens next

- Until March 15, 2019, the ISOLS Board and Nominating committee evaluate each proposal and select the bids which meet all the eligibility criteria with the submitted documentation
- ISOLS Board and Nominating committee will shortlist 3 suitable host cities
- Shortlisted applicants will be informed by March 18, 2019
- 5 min presentation of each applicant during the Board Meeting in Athens 2019 followed by selection of winning bid 2023
- The successful bid/congress president will be announced during the 20th General Assembly in Athens, 2019
- Winning bid is required to make an oral presentation during the 20th ISOLS General Assembly in Athens, 2019